Time of Prayer and Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil:

for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

Sermon Notes:

INTRODUCTION

- We are on our last week of talking about Job
- We jumped about 36 chapters from last week to this
- Overview of the book...Rev Don Shultz...

TODAY'S PASSAGE

- God is responding not just to Job's friends, but to Job as well
- It is okay to cry out to God. It is okay to pray for things to be different. But Job accused God of not knowing what He was doing.
- What was God's point in all this?

FOR US TODAY

- What can we learn from this?
- God does not cause evil to come on us
- When evil DOES come, we fight the enemy and temptation to blame God
- God didn't look like He knew what He was doing when it came to the cross

Some scriptures:

- Proverbs 3:5 – Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding
- Romans 15:13 – May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.
- Psalm 28:7 – The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and he helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise him.

Opening Hymn #92 “Crown Him with Many Crowns”

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne;
hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own;
awake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless king through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o’er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save;
his glories now we sing who died and rose on high,
who died eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of love; behold his hands and side,
rich wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified;
no angels in the sky can fully bear that sight,
but downward bend their burning eyes at mysteries so bright.

Crown him the Lord of years, the potentate of time,
creator of the rolling spheres, ineffably sublime.
All hail, Redeemer, hail! for thou hast died for me;
thy praise shall never, never fail throughout eternity.

Closing Hymn #452 “Turn Your Eyes upon Jesus”

Turn your eyes upon Jesus, look full in his wonderful face;
and the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of his glory and grace.

Benediction #496 “Give Thanks with a Grateful Heart” one time straight through Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the Holy One, give thanks because he’s given Jesus Christ his Son.

And now let the weak say “I am strong”; let the poor say “I am rich”
because of what the Lord has done for us.
Give thanks!
