Time of Prayer and Lord’s Prayer (on screen)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Postlude

From Last Week:

...Neither do men pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved. — Matthew 9:17

We talked about how Lent is a time not just to clear our spiritual plates of sins and things that hinder us, but to take huge portions of things God offers us — unconditional love, nourishment through God’s Word, Christ’s presence, salvation, abundant life, the Holy Spirit, and so much more.

Last week we discussed that to embrace the new wine God offers, we need to be new wineskins. We need to be willing to turn away from our sin and trust Him completely. As we enter our last two weeks of Lent, how are you doing? Do you trust God more?
